

Culture & History

ȘTEFAN CEL MARE ȘI SFÂNT (Stephen the Great and Saint) was the best and the greatest ruler of Moldova ever. He ruled with the country for 47 years (1457-1504).

His qualities as: a good strategist and astute diplomat, the initiatives taken to develop the culture by founding a new architecture style, building an impressive number of churches and monasteries, and the battles waged and won to defend the integrity of the country - have made him a legendary hero.
